15.1. Definition. As used in this Agreement, "Confidential Information" means information and materials provided by the disclosing Party ("Discloser") to the Party receiving the information or materials ("Recipient") that (a) are identified as confidential at the time of disclosure, or (b) a reasonable person in the relevant industries should understand to be confidential based on the nature of the information and materials and all other relevant factors. For the avoidance of doubt, Customer's Confidential Information includes, without limitation, Customer Data and Customer's non-public business plans, and Auditoria.AI's Confidential Information includes, without limitation, pricing terms offered under any Order Form, Auditoria.AI's non-public business plans, all non-public aspects of the Auditoria.AI Technology, and the results of any evaluation of the Service performed by or on behalf of Customer for purposes of monitoring its availability, performance or functionality, or for any other benchmarking or competitive purposes.

15.2. Purpose. Recipient must not use any of Discloser's Confidential Information for any purpose other than carrying out Recipient's obligations or exercising its rights under this Agreement (the "Purpose"). For the avoidance of doubt, use of Confidential Information in an aggregated and anonymized manner that does not include Personal Data is not prohibited.

15.3. Permitted Disclosures and Obligations. Recipient also must not disclose to any third party any Confidential Information, other than to Recipient's Affiliates, contractors and consultants who (a) need to know the information in order to fulfill the Purpose, and (b) are bound by confidentiality obligations substantially similar to Recipient's under this Agreement (each Party is fully responsible for its respective Affiliates', contractors' and consultants' compliance with this Agreement). Recipient must treat all Discloser Confidential Information with the same degree of care Recipient gives to its own Confidential Information, but not less than reasonable care. Neither Party may disclose publicly the existence or nature of any negotiations or other communications between the Parties without prior written consent of the other Party. Recipient and its Affiliates, contractors and consultants who receive Confidential Information hereunder must: (i) not use any Confidential Information to compete with Discloser or in any other way except as reasonably necessary for the Purpose; (ii) not reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile any prototypes, software or other tangible objects received from Discloser under this Agreement that embody Confidential Information; (iii) promptly notify Discloser of any unauthorized use or disclosure of its Confidential Information of which Recipient becomes aware; and (iv) reasonably assist Discloser in remedying any unauthorized use or disclosure. For the avoidance of doubt, a security breach involving Customer Data will be governed by Section 5.2, and not Section 15.

15.5. Ownership and Destruction of Confidential Information. As between Discloser and Recipient, all Discloser Confidential Information is the property of Discloser, and no license or other rights are granted or implied hereby. All materials provided to Recipient by Discloser, whether or not they contain or disclose Confidential Information, are Discloser's property. Promptly after any request by Discloser, Recipient will (a) destroy or return to Discloser all Confidential Information and materials in Recipient's possession or control, and (b) upon written request by Discloser, confirm the return/destruction in writing; provided, however, that the Recipient may retain electronic 15.6. Confidentiality Period. Recipient's obligations with respect to Discloser's Confidential Information under Section 15 will remain in effect for the term of this Agreement for 3 years thereafter provided, however, that Recipient's obligations under this Agreement will continue to apply to Confidential Information that qualifies as a trade secret under applicable law for as long as it so qualifies.

The Service is a service, not a good, and is not subject to the Uniform Commercial Code, the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act, or the United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods. Other than with respect to seeking injunctive relief under applicable law, neither Party may initiate any litigation against the other Party until after providing clear written notice of its intention to do so and first making a good faith effort to resolve the dispute informally through escalation to an appropriate level of executive management of both Parties for at least thirty (30) days after providing notice.

16.2. Assignment & Other Transfers. Neither Party may assign, sublicense or otherwise transfer (by operation of law or otherwise) this Agreement, or any of a Party's rights or obligations under this Agreement, to any third party without the other Party's prior written consent, which consent must not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned; provided, however, that either Party may assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement, along with all associated Order Forms and/or SOW (and all its rights and obligations thereunder), (a) to a successor-in-interest in connection with a merger, acquisition, reorganization, a sale of most or all of its assets, or other change of control, or (b) to its Affiliate. The affected Party must, however, (a) give the other Party prompt written notice of the nature and expected duration of the Force Majeure, (b) use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate the delay and other effects, (c) periodically notify the other Party of significant changes in the status of the Force Majeure, and (d) notify the other Party promptly when the Force Majeure ends.

16.5. Marketing. Auditoria.AI may not use Customer's name without Customer's prior written approval; provided, however, that Auditoria.AI may use Customer's name and logo on Auditoria.AI's website and marketing materials solely to identify Customer as a Auditoria.AI customer (without revealing any Customer Confidential Information or details about the Parties' relationship or this Agreement). If Customer has any issues with any use by Auditoria.AI of Customer's name, Auditoria.AI and Customer will cooperate to promptly resolve the issue.

16.6. Insurance. Each Party will maintain sufficient insurance coverage to adequately cover its respective obligations under this Agreement. Upon request, each Party will provide to the other Party a copy of its current certificate of insurance evidencing coverage.

16.7. Independent Contractors. The Parties are independent contracting parties. Neither Party has, or will hold itself out as having, any right or authority to incur any obligation on behalf of the other Party. The Parties' relationship in connection with this Agreement will not be construed as a joint venture, partnership, franchise, employment, or agency relationship.

16.8. Notices. All notices required under this Agreement must be delivered to the other Party in writing (a) in person, (b) by nationally recognized overnight delivery service, or (c) by certified U.S. mail (requiring signature) to the other Party's corporate headquarters, Attention: Legal Department. With respect to all other notices, Customer may email Auditoria.AI at notices@Auditoria.AI, and Auditoria.AI may email Customer's billing contact identified on the applicable Order Form(s) or SOW. Either Party may change its notice address by giving written notice to the other Party.

16.9. Anti-Corruption. Customer acknowledges it has not received or been offered any illegal or otherwise improper bribe, kickback, payment, gift or other thing of value by any Auditoria.AI employee, representative or agent in connection with this Agreement. Customer will use reasonable efforts to promptly notify Auditoria.AI at legal@Auditoria.AI if Customer becomes aware of any circumstances that are contrary to this acknowledgment.

16.10. Government Users. If Customer is a U.S. government entity, or this Agreement otherwise becomes subject to the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR), Customer acknowledges that the Service constitutes software and documentation provided as "Commercial Items" under 48 C.F.R. 2.101 and developed solely at private expense, and are being licensed made accessible to U.S. government Users as commercial computer software subject to the restricted rights described in 48 C.F.R. 2.101 and 12.212.

16.11. Execution. This Agreement may be signed electronically and in counterparts, in which case each signed copy will be deemed an original as though both signatures appeared on the same document.
